

An Olive Glow

An olive glow enhances all my thoughts of you
Dark enticing eddies in your eyes
They linger like the hunger for the soft passions
Bestirred by misted evenings in your velvet arms

An olive glow pervades my recollection now
Love's reflection grows with ev'ry dream
The vistas, the rivers not sailed upon
Meander on Leaving me tinged with olive

(solos)

An olive glow is all that I have left of you
Fading twilight vestiges dissolve
A fragrance, a wisp of a melody
Still sing to me
Memories gilt in olive
